There Are Five Good Reasons!

Frankly, we feel very good about the outlook for Fall business. There are five chief reasons for this optimism:

We have never before spent so much time looking up and studying the new styles.

Our stock is larger than ever before at this time of the season.

We have only bought garments of houses that stand back of their goods. The style and workmanship of each garment is proof of its quality.

The price of all materials is more than other seasons. Our ready-made prices are no more.

Below are a few of the many garments shown. We ask your inspection.
